

Film, Television and Related Technologies

Position: Director of Development

Location: Toronto, Regina

Duration: Permanent

Canada Job One is currently recruiting for the role of Director of Development for a busy independent production house. This position requires someone who has experience in development and has brought projects from conception to delivery. The successful candidate must have knowledge of the production sector, skill at the identification of viable projects and have worked with major broadcasters.

If your experience reflects the above qualifications and skills, please forward a covering email and your CV in word.doc

Subject line must read: Director of Development

For submissions and questions please contact:

Deborah Andrews

Director Client Services: Film, Television and Related Technologies

Deborah@canadajobone.ca

www.canadajobone.ca