

Chief Executive Officer; Nunavut Film

Location: Iqaluit, Nunavut

Duration: Permanent

Nunavut Film is to currently recruiting for the position of CEO.

Promoting the growth of the Film, Television and Multimedia industry in the Territory of Nunavut the successful candidate will have considerable knowledge of the following:

- the independent production, broadcasting and new media sectors; and,
- program delivery of government funded programs in order to provide financial support to these sectors.

By supporting the Board of Directors and the activities of Nunavut Film, and providing effective management you will foster growth in the industry, develop industry infrastructure; and market Nunavut as a viable filming location; establishing a Canadian and International presence for Nunavut Film.

Responsibilities include the management of the Nunavut Film Office, participating in business and strategic planning, participation in the development of the annual plan, establishing effective partnerships; revenue growth, responsible financial management; program management and delivery, program identification, proposal development, implementation and evaluation.

Knowledge of Nunavut political and economic environment and ability to communicate in Inuktitut/Inuinnaqtun would be considered an asset.

If your experience reflects the above qualifications and skills, please forward a covering email and your CV in word.doc by: Monday June 7, 2007.

Subject line must read: Nunavut Film CEO

For submissions and questions please contact:

Deborah Andrews

Director Client Services: Film, Television and Related Technologies

Deborah@canadajobone.ca

www.canadajobone.ca

